

CAP152 -155 - Exhibit B, D, F & I Revisions

CUSC Panel Vote

14th December 2007

Defect and proposed solution

- ◆ A number of inconsistencies have been identified Exhibit B, D, F and I
- ◆ The objective of the proposals is to provide greater clarity and information to Users
- ◆ The Working Group supported the intention of the Amendment proposals and believed the original should be expanded to address a number of additional defects

Proposed Solution – Working Group Alternatives

Working Group Alternatives

- ◆ CAP152 – Exhibit B – Connection Application for Directly Connected Power Station...
 - ◆ Ensures Users update National Grid when changes occur
 - ◆ Introduces new questions regarding design variations, clarifies technical questions and requests additional project programme data
 - ◆ Improves guidance notes, address minor typographical errors, alignment and formatting issues
- ◆ CAP153 – Exhibit D – Use of System Application for Embedded Generation ...
 - ◆ Introduces new questions regarding connection, clarifies technical questions and requests additional project programme data
 - ◆ Improves guidance notes, address minor typographical errors, alignment and formatting issues

Proposed Solution – Working Group Alternatives cont.

- ◆ CAP154 – CUSC Exhibit F — Use of System Application for Suppliers...
 - ◆ Improves guidance notes, address minor typographical errors, alignment and formatting issues
- ◆ CAP155 – CUSC Exhibit I – Modification Application
 - ◆ Ensures Users update National Grid when changes occur
 - ◆ Introduces new questions regarding modifications and consents
 - ◆ Requests additional project programme data
 - ◆ Improves guidance notes, address minor typographical errors, alignment and formatting issues

Applicable Objectives and Recommendation

Objectives

- ◆ CAPs 152-55 better facilitate CUSC Applicable Objective (a) by providing :
 - ◆ greater clarity to the application process and thereby ensuring that the process is clear and streamlined which will improve efficiency