

Hewish Village Hall

Hinkley Connection Project community grants

National Grid Community Grants

The Hinkley Connection Project has already funded a number of local community projects and intends to do more throughout the life of the project.

Hewish Village hall

The Hinkley Connection Project has enabled the local community to purchase the village hall for the benefit of all local people

Frankie Howerd OBE Trust

Hinkley Connection Project community grants

National Grid Community Grants

The Hinkley Connection Project has already funded a number of local community projects and intends to do more throughout the life of the project.

Frankie Howerd OBE Trust

The Hinkley Connection Project has enabled the local community to start the development of a new community hub project.

The Trust has secured planning permission to turn the Old Blacksmith's Shop in Loxton into a Community Hub. When complete, The Hub will serve twelve villages and hamlets in this rural area.

Somerset Wildlife Trust

Hinkley Connection Project community grants

SOMERSET

National Grid Community Grants

The Hinkley Connection Project has already funded a number of local community projects and intends to do more throughout the life of the project.

Somerset Wildlife Trust

The Hinkley Connection Project has enabled the Somerset Wildlife Trust to purchase equipment and training related to scrub clearance and promotion of biodiversity.

Portishead Youth Centre

Hinkley Connection Project community grants

National Grid Community Grants

The Hinkley Connection Project has already funded a number of local community projects and intends to do more throughout the life of the project.

Portishead Youth Centre

The Hinkley Connection Project has funded a project mentoring vulnerable young people and supporting young families in the local community.

Wedmore Playing Field

Hinkley Connection Project community grants

National Grid Community Grants

The Hinkley Connection Project has already funded a number of local community projects and intends to do more throughout the life of the project.

Wedmore Playing Field

The Hinkley Connection Project has enabled the local community to replace the sports pavilion on Wedmore Playing Fields

Avonmouth Community Centre

Hinkley Connection Project community grants

Avonmouth Community Centre

The Hinkley Connection Project has supported the Avonmouth Community Centre to develop its services for the whole community, centre manager, Jac Blacker, said "The funding from National Grid will help to sustain this community building for future generations."

National Grid Community Grants

The Hinkley Connection Project has already funded a number of local community projects and intends to do more throughout the life of the project.